Dear Sir/Madam

Re. PCT/GB 03/02177 WO 03/097373

As you will be able to gather from the application numbers above, my application has gone beyond the 30th month period after priority date and may have been deemed to have been withdrawn by your office, this was at no point my intention..

It has been my full intention since the priority date, (20th May 2002) and even before that date to seek protection in the United States and beyond from the priority date.

I only realised in the last few days that I had gone beyond the normal deadlines to enter National phase through the PCT..

I realise that I should have been aware of these time limits and should have understood the possible implications, but in my defence, I would like to explain that I have suffered the most serious family problems and upheaval that are very well documented.

I can only say that the stress of the events of the past two years have been the cause of my lack of understanding of the relevant procedures in the national phase entry.

With all due respect to the rules of the USPTO, I kindly ask that the USPTO excuse the delay and maintain the effect of my international application in consideration of the extreme circumstances that I will provide details of.

Looking through all the guidelines and various articles concerning "Excusing delays in meeting time limits and the various procedures in place to reinstate the rights with respect to an application I can see that I must now file a petition to revive.

I have enclosed the form PTO/SB/64 with the relevant fee of $750.00, I also have all the necessary forms ready for USPTO national phase entry but I gather that these should be held onto until I know whether my petition to revive is granted or not.

I shall now outline some of the problems that my family and I have suffered over the last two years.

The PCT application was being dealt with by my husband (Mr. B. Quinn), he is far more familiar with such things and so as a rule he dealt with the various paperwork on my behalf.

My husband's brother (Mr. Paul Shuttleworth) suffers from an autistic disorder that has caused him many problems from childhood to the present day.

During 2003 he got into trouble with the Police for shouting at a member of the public in the street, in a most bizarre manner the police dealt with the complaint in a normal manner without taking into consideration Mr. Shuttleworth's history of Autism.

The action taken by the Police resulted in a prosecution case being mounted against my brother-in-law Mr. Paul Shuttleworth, this happened to the shock and dismay of immediate family members and his Doctors and social workers.

The case mounted against him by the CPS (Crown Prosecution Service) was continually adjourned, at first he was sent to a prison to be held until his trial date was fixed.

Initially he was held in the psychiatric wing of the prison but then a prison official decided to transfer him to the real part of the prison, at this point we were as a family, frantic with worry, my brother-in-law is now thirty years old but he has the mental age of a ten year old. We were petrified for his safety.

We then as a family applied to the court to hear a bail application from ourselves and Paul's lawyers, we applied for bail and it was accepted with special terms applicable.

It was the above events and the terms of his bail conditions that was the cause of huge family stress and I believe a nervous breakdown for my husband.

The bail terms specified that Mr. Shuttleworth could not go within a five mile radius of where the incident took place, as the incident took place near to his sheltered housing accommodation it was impossible for him to return to his home.

The bail terms further specified that Mr. Shuttleworth should stay at our home address (Nags Head Rd.) and should not leave the property without his brother at any time.

These events lead to the near collapse of my family; my husband had to become the full time carer for his autistic brother and under the stress our family disintegrated.

We are only now starting to rebuild our lives and have achieved some semblance of normality again having partially recovered from the stress of the events.

When the court case eventually resumed, the trial judge threw out the case and said that there was no case to answer, this was a great relief but the job of being the full time carer for an autistic person carried on.

This was made worse by my brother in-law living with us on a full time basis becoming a permanent feature and the fact of us becoming his full time carers.

It is under these extreme and extraordinary circumstances that our concentration for the PCT procedure had lapsed.

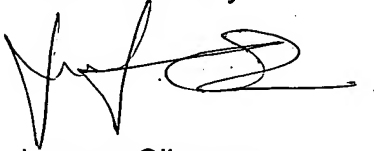

I can provide a file of various letters that will help to illustrate what we have been through as a family, I do not think that there will be any problem getting the solicitors and social workers involved, to sign affidavits

I would kindly ask that the above information be taken into consideration when assessing the possibility of the restoration of my rights concerning late entry into the USPTO national phase..

The pages that follow are the various letters from the solicitors involved in the case.

I have also enclosed a copy of my British Naturalisation Certificate by way of showing my married name and maiden name, I have been married to my husband for 14 years but at the time of writing this letter I could not locate my marriage certificate. When I have a marriage certificate in my possession I will forward this to you, to further prove my family connection and involvement in the events that I have described.

Yours sincerely

Further to the above I write to confirm that following an application on your behalf you were granted bail with conditions that you reside with your brother at the above address and that you are accompanied by him at all times on leaving the house and that you do not come within a 5 mile radius of the Hammersmith Flyover.

Clearly these are quite exhaustive conditions and having spoken to Dr Grasby make your further treatment and assessment somewhat difficult as you are not allowed to attend the hospitals that you normally do.

However, you are I understand attending the Maudsley Hospital in Camberwell.

I have today spoken to Dr Grasby who is expresses his willingness to assist in providing medical reports.

However, I am awaiting all the information from the Barrister who was in attendance with you on the 1st of May and it is my intention to write to the Crown Prosecution Service on your behalf asking them to consider reviewing this case in the light of your recent diagnosis from the Maudsley.

In any event you should ensure that you are at Court on the 30th of May 2003 at 10am unless you hear from us otherwise.

Should you or your brother wish to discuss your case then please don't hesitate to contact us.

Dear Mr Quinn

Re: Paul Shuttleworth

Please find enclosed the report from the Maudsley Hospital that provides a detailed assessment of your brother's current and past problems. As we have discussed previously the most likely diagnosis is that of an autistic disorder.

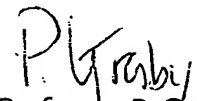

In relation to Mr Shuttleworth's court case, I have still not received any instructions from his solicitor. In addition, I assume from our conversations that Paul remains outside our catchment area for the time being. As I have noted previously if Paul is to remain in Enfield for a significant period of time, then I think that it will be necessary to transfer his on-going psychiatric care to the relevant local authorities. As you can imagine it is extremely difficult to provide care for Paul whilst he is outside our catchment area. In addition, further to our previous telephone conversations, I would like to reiterate that Paul should be registered with a local GP incase there are any problems, whilst he lives in Enfield.

I hope things are going well for Paul at the present time and please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

I am away for much of July, but hope to have phoned you before I leave, just to check up on the present situation.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely,
